

AMCHAM GUYANA PRESS RELEASE

On Tuesday October 29, 2019, a delegation from AMCHAM Guyana led by its President Mr. Zulfikar Ally met with Chairperson of the Guyana Elections Commission, Justice (ret'd) Claudette Singh and members of the Commission and its Secretariat.

President Ally also took the opportunity to formally welcome the appointment of Justice Singh to the post of GECOM's Chairperson and related that AMCHAM Guyana fully supports her in presiding over the upcoming General and Regional Elections.

The Commission was updated on the role and functions of AMCHAM Guyana, and the upcoming initiatives that the organization intends to pursue during and leading up to the national elections which will be held in March 2020, one of which is the training for journalists on election's coverage.

The Commission welcomed the offer of support from AMCHAM Guyana and committed to deliberate on granting observer status to the organization once a formal request is submitted for approval. The Commission also took the opportunity to enquire about AmCham Guyana's global network and offered assistance to sensitize the Chamber's members on the Gecom's role and functions. Both the Chamber and the Commission agreed to collaborate closely on matters pertaining to any support the Commission may need leading up to the General and Regional Elections in 2020.
