

PRESS RELEASE

Amcham Guyana wishes to congratulate H.E. Dr. Irfaan Ali, President of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, the Hon. Mark Phillips Prime Minister and the Hon. Dr. Bharat Jagdeo Vice President on their election to office.

It is our sincere hope that the already prosperous relationship between the United States and Guyana will continue to grow. AmCham looks forward to working with the new administration to further develop a mutually-beneficial partnership that promotes trade and investment policies, so that US and Guyanese businesses can continue to grow in each other's respective markets.

AmCham Guyana is a non-profit, non-partisan trade association that works to foster a business climate that bolsters trade and investment and supports industry to flourish in both the United States and Guyana.
